

Dear Golfer

To become a 'Wheatlands Full/Recreational Member', we have pleasure in attaching an Application form and list of Tariffs. Join today and pay the one off joining fee of £50. The new subscription year begins on 1st April 2007, when your yearly subs will be due for 2007/2008, until then receive members benefits for free, ie, reduced green fees, guest rates, discount in shop etc etc.

Now affiliated to the English Golf Union (EGU and ELGU), the course is now passing its 13th anniversary in play, nestling in an undulating setting, surrounded by mature woodland and enjoying unusual inland panoramic views. As each year goes by the natural growth of the extensive tree and shrub planting is emerging, alongside the abundance of wildlife around the ponds.

For the complete beginner, our attached professional, Terry Le Brocq, is on hand to offer tuition both in the practice nets and on the course. Lessons at £15.00 for 30 minute sessions and £20.00 for 40 minute and £25 per hour.

For those golfers wishing to obtain a recognised EGU/ELGU Handicap, why not start here, it could be your passport to greater golf!

Golf Competitions are now well established and included in this years events will be the Seat Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter Series taking place weekly from Friday 5th January – as a Full/Recreational Member the entry fee is your standard reduced green fee.
